

You only see that the money is not the most important thing in life when you have it.
Thursday Prime Rib
#4 Village Plaza • Liberal, KS 67242-2020 • Reservations: 785-842-1111
Only a short drive from the historic downtown area, this restaurant is a local favorite.

Woman wounded in early Sunday morning shooting

By Sarah Hays
A woman was wounded in a shooting in Seward County on Sunday morning. The shooting occurred in the early morning hours of Sunday, May 11, in the town of Seward. The woman, who was not identified, was taken to a local hospital for treatment. The police are currently investigating the incident.

Percent Receiving Food Stamps Use of food stamps rises in Seward County

Local authors donate to library

Local authors have donated their books to the Seward County Library. The authors, including several local writers, have given their books to the library to be made available to the community. The library is grateful for the donations and will be displaying the books in a special section.

Kansas mom pleads no contest in 6-year-old daughter's death

A Kansas mother has pleaded no contest to the death of her 6-year-old daughter. The case involves a tragic incident that occurred in the family's home. The mother is currently facing charges related to the death. The case is currently in court.

Seward County man dies in fire

A man from Seward County died in a fire that broke out in his home. The fire occurred in the early morning hours of Sunday, May 11. The man was found in the fire and was pronounced dead at the scene. The cause of the fire is still under investigation.

City to give up property for school expansion

The City of Seward is planning to give up property to allow for school expansion. The property is currently owned by the city and is being offered to the school district. The school district is planning to build a new school building on the property. The city is currently in the process of negotiating the terms of the transfer.

Coffee with a candidate:

A candidate for office is participating in a 'coffee with a candidate' event. The event is being held at a local coffee shop and is open to the public. The candidate is looking to meet with voters and hear their concerns. The event is a great opportunity for voters to get to know their candidate.

Geithner, in memoir, suggests White House asked him to bend truth on deficit

In his memoir, Timothy Geithner suggests that the White House asked him to bend the truth on the deficit. Geithner, who served as the director of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, is the author of the memoir. He discusses his experiences working for the Obama administration and his views on the deficit. He suggests that the White House was concerned about the deficit and wanted to downplay its size.

County to conduct special work session tonight

Seward County is holding a special work session tonight. The session is being held at the county office and will focus on a specific issue. The session is open to the public and is a great opportunity for citizens to voice their concerns. The session will be held at 7:00 PM.

Feds mum on Kansas prairie chicken law

The federal government is silent on a new law regarding the prairie chicken in Kansas. The law was passed by the state legislature and is aimed at protecting the prairie chicken. The federal government has not yet responded to the law. The prairie chicken is a species that is found only in Kansas and is considered a state symbol.

Energy savings bill fails amid election politics

A bill aimed at energy savings failed in the legislature due to election politics. The bill was introduced by a legislator and was intended to reduce energy costs for businesses and individuals. However, the bill was not passed due to opposition from other legislators. The bill is currently in committee.