

You only see that the money is not the most important thing in life when you have it.
Thursday Prime Rib
#4 Village Plaza • Liberal, KS 67242-2020 • Reservations: 785-842-1111

Woman wounded in early Sunday morning shooting

By Sarah Hays
A woman was wounded in a shooting in Seward County on Sunday morning. The woman, who was not identified, was shot in the back of the head and chest. She was taken to a hospital and is in stable condition. The police are currently investigating the shooting and have not yet identified any suspects.

Percent Receiving Food Stamps Use of food stamps rises in Seward County

Local authors donate to library

Page 2A
Local authors donated their books to the Seward County Library. The authors, including several local writers, gave their books to the library to be added to the collection. The library is grateful for the donations and will be making the books available to the community.

Kansas mom pleads no contest in 6-year-old daughter's death

By Sarah Hays
A Kansas mother has pleaded no contest to the death of her 6-year-old daughter. The mother, who was not identified, was charged with the death of her daughter. She is currently facing charges and is in custody. The case is currently in court.

Seward County man dies in fire

By Sarah Hays
A man from Seward County died in a fire. The man, who was not identified, was found in a fire that broke out in his home. The fire was caused by an electrical fault. The man was taken to a hospital but died of his injuries.

City to give up property for school expansion

By Sarah Hays
The city of Seward is giving up property for school expansion. The city is donating the property to the school district to be used for a new school building. The school district is currently in the process of planning the new building.

Coffee with a candidate:

By Sarah Hays
A candidate for office is having coffee with a group of people. The candidate, who was not identified, is meeting with the group to discuss his campaign. The group is interested in hearing from the candidate and is providing him with feedback.

Geithner, in memoir, suggests White House asked him to bend truth on deficit

By Sarah Hays
Timothy Geithner, in his memoir, suggests that the White House asked him to bend the truth on the deficit. Geithner, who was the director of the FDIC, is accused of lying to Congress about the state of the economy. He claims that the White House pressured him to provide false information.

County to conduct special work session tonight

By Sarah Hays
Seward County is conducting a special work session tonight. The work session is being held to discuss the county's budget and other important issues. The work session is open to the public and will be held at the county office.

Feds mum on Kansas prairie chicken law

By Sarah Hays
The federal government is silent on a new law regarding the prairie chicken in Kansas. The law, which was passed by the state legislature, is aimed at protecting the prairie chicken. The federal government has not yet commented on the law.

Energy savings bill fails amid election politics

By Sarah Hays
A bill aimed at energy savings failed in the legislature due to election politics. The bill, which was sponsored by a Republican, was defeated by a narrow margin. The bill was aimed at reducing energy costs for businesses and consumers.