

GRAND SUPPER
Lunch: $6.99 Dinner: $10.99
Necessities: Paper, Laundry, Grocery, etc.
2014-15 Budget: $1.500-$2.000

City approves land transfer for school expansion plans

By Staff Writer
The City of Okaloosa has approved the transfer of land from the city to the Okaloosa County School District for the purpose of expanding the school district's facilities. The transfer is part of a larger plan to improve the school district's infrastructure and provide better educational opportunities for students. The transfer is expected to be completed in the next few months.

Fun in the outdoors at OK Kids Day

By Staff Writer
Okaloosa County's annual OK Kids Day event was held at the Okaloosa County Fairgrounds on Saturday. The event featured a variety of activities for children, including games, crafts, and live entertainment. The event was a great success and provided a fun day for the community.

Greiners walking the nation praising God

By Staff Writer
A group of Greiners is walking across the United States, praising God and spreading the message of the Gospel. The group is currently in Okaloosa County and will continue their journey across the country. The Greiners are a well-known group of evangelists and their journey has inspired many people.

Rep. Huelskamp pursues prairie chicken protest

By Staff Writer
Rep. Louie Gohmert is leading a protest against the prairie chicken. The protest is taking place in Okaloosa County and is drawing attention to the issue of prairie chicken conservation. The protest is a significant event and is expected to have a lasting impact on the issue.

911 caller: Where can I buy some marijuana?

By Staff Writer
A 911 caller in Okaloosa County asked the dispatcher where they could buy marijuana. The dispatcher responded that they did not know where to buy marijuana and advised the caller to call the police. This incident highlights the issue of marijuana legalization and the need for clear guidelines.

Manning seeking gender treatment, Defense Secretary Chuck Hagel OKs move

By Staff Writer
Lt. Col. Tammie Manning is seeking gender treatment and Defense Secretary Chuck Hagel has approved the move. Manning is a transgender service member and has been seeking medical treatment for gender dysphoria. Hagel's approval is a significant step towards supporting transgender service members.

Consumers losing doctors with new insurance plans

By Staff Writer
Consumers are losing their doctors as new insurance plans are implemented. Many doctors are leaving their current practices to join new insurance plans, leaving consumers with limited choices. This is a significant issue for consumers and highlights the need for better insurance options.

Happy Birthday, Bob Peery!

By Staff Writer
Happy Birthday to Bob Peery, a local resident and community member. Bob is a well-known figure in the community and has made many contributions. We wish him a happy birthday and hope he has a great day.