

GRAND SUPPER
Lunch: $6.99 Dinner: $10.99
Necessities: Paper, Laundry, Grocery, etc.
2014-15 Budget: $1.500-$2.000

City approves land transfer for school expansion plans

By Staff Writer
The City of Okaloosa has approved the transfer of land to the Okaloosa School District for the expansion of the school campus. The transfer is part of a long-term plan to increase the school's capacity and improve the learning environment for students. The school district will be responsible for the construction and maintenance of the new facilities.

Fun in the outdoors at OK Kids Day

By Staff Writer
A group of children and their families enjoyed a day of fun in the outdoors at the OK Kids Day event. The event featured a variety of activities, including games, crafts, and a picnic. The children were given the opportunity to interact with nature and learn about the importance of environmental conservation.

Greiners walking the nation praising God

By Staff Writer
A group of Greiners is walking across the United States, praising God and spreading the message of faith. The group consists of several individuals who are committed to their religious beliefs and are seeking to inspire others through their journey. They are currently in the state of Florida and plan to continue their walk across the country.

Rep. Huelskamp pursues prairie chicken protest

By Staff Writer
Rep. Louie Gohmert is leading a protest against the prairie chicken. He is concerned about the impact of the bird on the local ecosystem and the potential for disease. He is calling for the government to take action to protect the prairie chicken and its habitat.

911 caller: Where can I buy some marijuana?

By Staff Writer
A 911 caller in Okaloosa County asked the dispatcher where they could buy marijuana. The dispatcher responded that marijuana is illegal in the state of Florida and that the caller should not attempt to purchase it. The incident highlights the ongoing debate about the legalization of marijuana in the state.

Manning seeking gender treatment, Defense Secretary Chuck Hagel OKs move

By Staff Writer
Lt. Col. Tammie Lynn Manning is seeking gender reassignment surgery. Defense Secretary Chuck Hagel has approved the move, recognizing Manning's request for medical care. Manning is a member of the U.S. Army and has served in several deployments. Her case has become a topic of discussion regarding transgender rights in the military.

Consumers losing doctors with new insurance plans

By Staff Writer
Consumers are losing their doctors as new insurance plans are introduced. Many doctors are leaving their current practices to join new networks, leaving patients with limited options. This is causing frustration among consumers who are unable to see their preferred doctors. The issue is being discussed by lawmakers and consumer advocates.