

GRAND BUFFET Lunch Buffet $6.99 • Dinner Buffet $9.99
Serving up the best of the West in the heart of the city!
Coke, Pepsi, Soft Drinks, Desserts, Coffee, Tea, Milk, Juice
Catering for all occasions • 100% Satisfaction Guarantee

Jill Pannkuk resigns as Memorial Library Director

By Tracy B. ...
Jill Pannkuk, the director of the Memorial Library, has resigned from her position. Pannkuk, who has worked for the library for over 20 years, was the first woman to lead the library. She was appointed to the position in 2008 and served until her resignation in 2014. The library board of trustees announced her resignation on May 15, 2014. Pannkuk will be leaving the library to pursue other opportunities. She will be missed by her colleagues and the community.

2 teens arrested in drug bust

By Tracy B. ...
Two teenagers were arrested in a drug bust by police officers. The officers were patrolling the area and noticed suspicious activity. They stopped the teens and searched their vehicles, finding a large quantity of drugs. The teens were taken to the police station and charged with possession of drugs. They are currently in custody and awaiting trial.

Former Times staffer heads up Arkansas publishing group

By Tracy B. ...
A former staff member of the newspaper has taken the helm of a new publishing group in Arkansas. The group is focused on providing high-quality news and information to the community. The former staffer brings with them a wealth of experience and a commitment to journalistic integrity. The group is excited to have them on board and looks forward to their leadership.

National campaign includes selfies

By Tracy B. ...
A national campaign is using selfies to raise awareness and funds for a cause. The campaign encourages people to take and share their own selfies, which are then used in various ways to support the cause. The campaign has been successful in reaching a wide audience and raising significant funds. It is a creative and effective way to engage the public and make a difference.

Kansas girl takes the wheel in emergency

By Tracy B. ...
A young girl in Kansas took the wheel of a car in an emergency situation. The car was stuck in traffic, and the driver was unable to move forward. The girl, who was sitting in the back seat, saw the driver's struggle and decided to take control of the vehicle. She drove the car safely to the side of the road, where she was helped by other drivers. Her quick thinking and bravery were praised by everyone who witnessed the incident.

Redskins compete at WAC meet

By Tracy B. ...
The Redskins football team competed at a Western Athletic Conference (WAC) meet. The team performed well, showcasing their skills and teamwork. They were able to secure a victory, which was a morale booster for the team. The coaches and players were proud of the team's effort and look forward to their next game. The WAC meet was a challenging one, but the team proved their mettle and emerged as a strong contender.

Topoka man pleads guilty to arranging fraudulent marriages

By Tracy B. ...
A man from Topoka, Kansas, has pleaded guilty to arranging fraudulent marriages. He was charged with helping individuals obtain visas through fake marriages. The man was caught by immigration authorities who discovered the scheme. He is facing multiple charges and could face significant penalties. The case highlights the importance of legal immigration and the consequences of illegal practices.

LHS prepares for graduation

By Tracy B. ...
The Lincoln High School (LHS) is preparing for its annual graduation ceremony. The school is busy with final preparations, including decorating the stage and organizing the program. The graduates are excited and nervous about the upcoming event. The school is proud of the hard work and dedication of the graduates and looks forward to celebrating their achievements. The ceremony is a special occasion for the school and the community.

First lady to visit Kansas for 2 student events

By Tracy B. ...
The first lady of the United States is scheduled to visit Kansas for two student events. She will be visiting the state to meet with students and support their education. The events are a great opportunity for the first lady to connect with the youth of Kansas and hear their concerns. The students are excited to have her visit and look forward to her inspiring words and encouragement. The first lady's visit is a testament to the importance of education and the role of the first lady in supporting our young people.

Best Kansas High Schools

US News & World Report has ranked the best high schools in Kansas. The list includes several schools that have consistently performed well in various categories, including academics, sports, and arts. The schools are proud of their rankings and the hard work of their students and faculty. The rankings provide a benchmark for other schools and a source of pride for the communities they serve. The schools are committed to providing a high-quality education for all their students.

May 16, 2014 11:52 AM CDT. Page 1 of 1. Welcome to the L.A.T. When you can't get the printed version, go to www.kanohionline.com. Lincoln, Kansas.