

GRAND BUFFET Lunch Buffet $6.99 • Dinner Buffet $9.99
Serving up the best of the West in the heart of the city!
Coke, Pepsi, Soft Drinks, Coffee, Tea, Milk, Juice, Desserts, and more!
100% Recycled Paper Plates, Napkins, and Paper Cups
100% Recycled Paper Plates, Napkins, and Paper Cups

Jill Pannkuk resigns as Memorial Library Director

By Tompkins
Jill Pannkuk, the director of the Memorial Library, has resigned from her position. Pannkuk, who has worked for the library for over 20 years, was the first woman to lead the library. She was appointed to the position in 2008. Pannkuk's resignation was announced on May 14, 2014. She will be leaving the library on May 20, 2014. The library is currently searching for a replacement.

2 teens arrested in drug bust

By Tompkins
Two teenagers were arrested in a drug bust on May 14, 2014. The teens were found with a large quantity of marijuana. They are currently being held in custody. The police are investigating the source of the drugs. The teens are currently being held in custody.

Former Times staffer heads up Arkansas publishing group

By Tompkins
A former staff member of the Arkansas Times has headed up a new publishing group. The group is focused on providing news and information to the community. The group is currently working on several projects. The group is currently working on several projects.

National campaign includes selfies

By Tompkins
A national campaign is using selfies to raise awareness. The campaign is focused on promoting positive values and behaviors. The campaign is currently running in several states. The campaign is currently running in several states.

Kansas girl takes the wheel in emergency

By Tompkins
A young girl in Kansas took the wheel of a car in an emergency situation. The girl was driving the car to safety. The incident occurred on May 14, 2014. The girl was driving the car to safety.

Redskins compete at WAC meet

By Tompkins
The Redskins competed at a WAC meet on May 14, 2014. The team performed well in several events. The team performed well in several events.

Topoka man pleads guilty to arranging fraudulent marriages

By Tompkins
A man from Topoka, Kansas, has pleaded guilty to arranging fraudulent marriages. The man was found guilty of arranging marriages for a fee. The man was found guilty of arranging marriages for a fee.

LHS prepares for graduation

By Tompkins
LHS is preparing for graduation on May 16, 2014. The school is currently in the final stages of preparations. The school is currently in the final stages of preparations.

First lady to visit Kansas for 2 student events

By Tompkins
The first lady is visiting Kansas for two student events. The events are focused on promoting education and community service. The events are focused on promoting education and community service.

Best Kansas High Schools

By Tompkins
A list of the best high schools in Kansas has been released. The list is based on various factors, including test scores and graduation rates. The list is based on various factors, including test scores and graduation rates.