

GRAND BUFFET Lunch Buffet $9.99 • Dinner Buffet $19.99
Serving up the best of the best in Kansas City!
Coke, Pepsi, Soft Drinks, Desserts, Coffee, Tea, Milk, Juice, Water, and more!
Reservations: 816.432.8888 • 10000 N. Lincoln Ave., Suite 100, Overland Park, KS 66213

---

Jill Pannkuk resigns as Memorial Library Director

By David H. Johnson
Jill Pannkuk, the director of the Memorial Library in Overland Park, has resigned from her position. Pannkuk, who has worked for the library for 15 years, was hired in 2009. She was the first woman to lead the library. Pannkuk's resignation was announced on Tuesday. She will be leaving the library on May 20. Pannkuk was praised for her leadership and dedication to the library. She was instrumental in the library's expansion and the creation of the new building. Pannkuk will be missed by her colleagues and the community.

2 teens arrested in drug bust

By David H. Johnson
Two teenagers were arrested in a drug bust in Overland Park. The teens, a 17-year-old male and a 16-year-old female, were arrested on Tuesday. They were charged with possession of marijuana. The bust was conducted by the Overland Park Police Department. The teens were taken to the police station and are currently being held. Their parents have been notified. The police are looking for more information about the source of the marijuana.

Former Times staffer heads up Arkansas publishing group

By David H. Johnson
A former staff member of the Kansas City Star has been named to lead a new publishing group in Arkansas. The group, called the Arkansas Publishing Group, was formed to provide news coverage in the state. The group will be based in Little Rock. The former staffer, who has worked for the Star for 15 years, has extensive experience in journalism. He will be responsible for recruiting and managing a team of reporters and editors. The group is expected to begin operations in the fall.

National campaign includes selfies

By David H. Johnson
A national campaign to encourage people to take selfies is being launched. The campaign, called "Selfies for Good," is being led by a group of young people. The campaign is aimed at promoting self-love and confidence. People are encouraged to take selfies and post them on social media. The campaign is also promoting the use of selfie sticks. The campaign is expected to run through the summer months.

Kansas girl takes the wheel in emergency

By David H. Johnson
A young girl in Kansas took the wheel of a car in an emergency. The girl, who is 11 years old, was driving a car on a highway. The car was stuck in traffic. The girl decided to take the wheel and drive the car off the highway. The girl was praised for her quick thinking and bravery. The incident was reported to the police. The girl is currently being held in custody.

Redskins compete at WAC meet

By David H. Johnson
The Redskins football team competed at a Western Athletic Conference (WAC) meet. The team, coached by Mike Leach, finished the meet with a record of 3-1. The team's performance was praised by fans and coaches. The team will be competing in the WAC championship game. The team is expected to be a contender for the championship.

LHS prepares for graduation

By David H. Johnson
The Lincoln High School (LHS) is preparing for graduation. The school is holding a series of events to celebrate the occasion. The events include a graduation ceremony, a banquet, and a dance. The school is also holding a series of activities for the students. The school is expected to have a successful graduation season.

Topoka man pleads guilty to arranging fraudulent marriages

By David H. Johnson
A man from Topoka, Kansas, has pleaded guilty to arranging fraudulent marriages. The man, who is 45 years old, was charged with arranging marriages between himself and several women. The marriages were found to be fraudulent. The man is currently being held in custody. He is expected to be sentenced to prison.

First lady to visit Kansas for 2 student events

By David H. Johnson
The first lady of the United States is expected to visit Kansas for two student events. The first lady, Michelle Obama, will be visiting the state in the fall. She will be attending a series of events at the University of Kansas. She will also be attending a series of events at the University of Wichita. The events are expected to be a success.

Best Kansas High Schools

US News & World Report has ranked the best high schools in Kansas. The schools are ranked based on their performance on standardized tests. The top schools are:

- 1. Overland Park High School
- 2. Shawnee Mission High School
- 3. Prairie View High School
- 4. Olathe North High School
- 5. Shawnee Mission East High School

Liberal High Schools

US News & World Report has ranked the best liberal arts high schools in Kansas. The schools are ranked based on their performance on standardized tests. The top schools are:

- 1. Overland Park High School
- 2. Shawnee Mission High School
- 3. Prairie View High School
- 4. Olathe North High School
- 5. Shawnee Mission East High School

Friday Leader & Times

May 16, 2014
Your daily news & views for 128 years

Page 18

© 2014 by the Board of Directors of the Kansas City Star and Times. All rights reserved.