

GRAND BUFFET Lunch Buffet $6.99 • Dinner Buffet $9.99
Serving Dinner Buffet for $10.99
Coke, Dessert, Performance, Fun & Entertainment, Live Music
10:00am - 10:00pm
1000 N. 10th St., Suite 100, Topeka, KS 66608
781-222-2222

Jill Pannkuk resigns as Memorial Library Director
By Tommie L. Hays
Jill Pannkuk, the director of the Memorial Library, has resigned from her position. Pannkuk, who has worked for the library for 15 years, was named director in 2011. She will be replaced by Tommie L. Hays, who has worked for the library for 10 years. Pannkuk's resignation was effective May 15, 2014.

2 teens arrested in drug bust
By Tommie L. Hays
Two teenagers were arrested in a drug bust in Topeka. The teens, who were 17 and 18 years old, were arrested on charges of possession of marijuana. They were arrested by police officers from the Topeka Police Department. The teens were arrested on May 14, 2014.

Former Times staffer heads up Arkansas publishing group
By Tommie L. Hays
A former staff member of the Topeka Leader & Times has headed up a new publishing group in Arkansas. The group, called the Arkansas Publishing Group, was formed to provide news coverage to the state of Arkansas. The group's first publication was the Arkansas Daily News, which was launched in 2013.

National campaign includes selfies
By Tommie L. Hays
A national campaign to promote the use of social media for political purposes includes the use of selfies. The campaign, called the "Selfie for Social Change" campaign, was launched by the Obama White House. The campaign encourages people to take and share selfies to promote social and political causes.

Kansas girl takes the wheel in emergency
By Tommie L. Hays
A young girl in Topeka took the wheel of a car in an emergency situation. The girl, who was 11 years old, was driving the car when her mother became ill. The girl drove the car to a nearby hospital, where her mother was taken. The girl's actions were praised by police and medical staff.

Redskins compete at WAC meet
By Tommie L. Hays
The Topeka Redskins football team competed at a Western Athletic Conference (WAC) meet. The team, which is coached by Tommie L. Hays, finished the meet with a record of 2-1. The team's performance was praised by fans and coaches.

LHS prepares for graduation
By Tommie L. Hays
Lincoln High School (LHS) is preparing for its annual graduation ceremony. The ceremony, which will be held on May 20, 2014, will celebrate the achievements of the school's graduates. The school is currently in the process of finalizing the details of the ceremony.

Topoka man pleads guilty to arranging fraudulent marriages
By Tommie L. Hays
A man from Topeka has pleaded guilty to arranging fraudulent marriages. The man, who is 45 years old, was charged with arranging marriages between himself and several women. The marriages were found to be fraudulent by the state's attorney general.

First lady to visit Kansas for 2 student events
By Tommie L. Hays
The first lady of the United States is set to visit Kansas for two student events. The events, which will be held in Topeka, will provide an opportunity for the first lady to meet with students and discuss their concerns. The events are part of the first lady's ongoing efforts to support education and youth development.

