

We were born naked, wet and hungry. Then things got worse.
Thursday Prime Rib
A Village Prime • 100% Beef • 100% Natural • 100% Delicious
100% Satisfaction Guarantee • 100% Satisfaction Guarantee

ELECTION NEWS
State announces final candidate filings
The Kansas State Board of Elections announced today the final list of candidates for the November 4 general election. The board received 1,100 filings from candidates for 100 different offices. The board will certify the candidates on June 10.

2 of 3 county commission seats to be contested
The Board of County Commissioners for Johnson County announced today that two of the three seats on the board will be contested in the November 4 general election. The seat for Commissioner 1 will be contested by incumbent Commissioner David L. ...

All Saints Day set for Thursday
The Catholic Diocese of Kansas City in Kansas announced today that All Saints Day will be celebrated on Thursday, October 30, in 2014. This is the first time since 1987 that the day has been moved from its traditional date of November 1.

Private group wants to host PRCA Rodeo
A private group of individuals is seeking to host the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA) Rodeo in Kansas City in 2015. The group, known as the Kansas City Rodeo Association, has submitted a proposal to the city and is currently in discussions with city officials.

Sign up for Fishin' Clinic
The Kansas Department of Wildlife, Parks and Tourism is offering a free fishing clinic for children and their families. The clinic will be held on Saturday, June 7, at the Johnson County Fairgrounds. Participants will receive instruction from a professional angler and have the opportunity to catch and release a fish.

Kansas child dies after being run over by car
A 10-year-old boy from Kansas City died after being struck and killed by a car on Thursday, May 29. The boy was walking across a street near his home when he was hit by a vehicle. The driver of the car was not injured and is being investigated by police.

DOJ accused of targeting gun industry with 'Choke Point' program
The Department of Justice (DOJ) is accused of targeting the gun industry with a program known as 'Choke Point'. The program is said to be aimed at reducing the number of guns in circulation by targeting gun dealers and manufacturers. The gun industry has expressed concern over the program and has filed a lawsuit against the DOJ.

Kansas governor decries EPA carbon emissions rule
Kansas Governor Sam Brownback has announced that he will veto the Environmental Protection Agency's (EPA) carbon emissions rule. Brownback says the rule is an overreach of federal authority and will harm the state's economy. He says the rule will force businesses to spend millions of dollars on equipment to reduce carbon emissions.

Kansas governor plans action on prairie chickens
Kansas Governor Sam Brownback announced today that he will take action to protect the prairie chicken. Brownback says the prairie chicken is an endangered species and needs protection. He says he will work with the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service to develop a recovery plan for the bird.

DOJ accused of targeting gun industry with 'Choke Point' program
The Department of Justice (DOJ) is accused of targeting the gun industry with a program known as 'Choke Point'. The program is said to be aimed at reducing the number of guns in circulation by targeting gun dealers and manufacturers. The gun industry has expressed concern over the program and has filed a lawsuit against the DOJ.

Kansas governor decries EPA carbon emissions rule
Kansas Governor Sam Brownback has announced that he will veto the Environmental Protection Agency's (EPA) carbon emissions rule. Brownback says the rule is an overreach of federal authority and will harm the state's economy. He says the rule will force businesses to spend millions of dollars on equipment to reduce carbon emissions.

Kansas child dies after being run over by car
A 10-year-old boy from Kansas City died after being struck and killed by a car on Thursday, May 29. The boy was walking across a street near his home when he was hit by a vehicle. The driver of the car was not injured and is being investigated by police.

DOJ accused of targeting gun industry with 'Choke Point' program
The Department of Justice (DOJ) is accused of targeting the gun industry with a program known as 'Choke Point'. The program is said to be aimed at reducing the number of guns in circulation by targeting gun dealers and manufacturers. The gun industry has expressed concern over the program and has filed a lawsuit against the DOJ.

Kansas governor decries EPA carbon emissions rule
Kansas Governor Sam Brownback has announced that he will veto the Environmental Protection Agency's (EPA) carbon emissions rule. Brownback says the rule is an overreach of federal authority and will harm the state's economy. He says the rule will force businesses to spend millions of dollars on equipment to reduce carbon emissions.

Small text at the bottom of the first column.

Small text at the bottom of the second column.

Small text at the bottom of the third column.