

GRAND BUFFET (702) 251-8888
Wendy's (702) 251-8888
McDonald's (702) 251-8888

Food safety aim of ServSafe program

By Robert Noyce
 Food safety is a top priority for many businesses, and the ServSafe program is designed to help them achieve that goal. The program provides food safety training for employees, and is recognized by the health department. The program is available for all food service establishments, and is a requirement for all food service workers. The program is designed to help businesses reduce the risk of foodborne illness, and to ensure that all food service workers are properly trained and certified.

County is well prepared if E. coli breaks out

By Robert Noyce
 The health department is well prepared to handle an outbreak of E. coli. The department has a plan in place to quickly identify and contain any outbreak, and to provide medical care to those who become ill. The department also has a public information campaign to educate the public on how to prevent E. coli infection. The department is confident that it can handle any outbreak of E. coli, and is committed to protecting the health of the community.

Double drowning in Beaver County lake

By Robert Noyce
 Two children were killed in a double drowning incident in a lake in Beaver County. The children were playing in the lake, and one of them fell in. The other child was nearby, and also fell in. Both children were rescued, but they were pronounced dead at the hospital. The incident is a tragedy, and highlights the importance of water safety. Parents should always supervise their children when they are near water, and should teach their children about water safety.

RoboCop throws out 1st pitch

By Robert Noyce
 A RoboCop mascot threw the first pitch at a baseball game. The mascot is a police officer in a futuristic suit, and he threw the pitch with a baseball bat. The game was a home game for the team, and the mascot's appearance was a highlight of the event. The mascot is a popular character, and his appearance at the game was well-received by the fans.

Win $1,000 in the Ozsome Race

By Robert Noyce
 A contest is being held to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the Ozsome Race. The contest is open to all residents of the county, and the winner will receive a cash prize of $1,000. The contest is a fun and exciting way to celebrate the history of the county, and to encourage residents to participate in the race. The contest will be held on June 10th, and the winner will be announced on June 15th.

LEADER & TIMES

WEDNESDAY JUNE 4, 2014
 Your daily news & news for 125 years

Portland teachers miss class 14 days a year

By Robert Noyce
 A study has found that Portland teachers miss an average of 14 days of work each year. The study was conducted by the Oregon Department of Education, and it found that the average number of days missed by teachers is 14 days. The study also found that the most common reason for missing work is illness. The study highlights the importance of teacher health and wellness, and the need for better support for teachers.

Top military officer: Bergdahl case not closed

By Robert Noyce
 The case of the five American soldiers held in Afghanistan is not closed, according to a top military officer. The officer is a senior official in the Department of Defense, and he has been involved in the case since it began. He says that the case is still ongoing, and that there is still a lot of work to be done. He says that the military is committed to getting the soldiers home, and that they will continue to work on the case until it is resolved.

Neighbors: Stabbing at odds with girls' upbringing

By Robert Noyce
 Neighbors of a young girl who was stabbed are questioning her upbringing. The girl was 10 years old when she was stabbed, and she was alone at the time. The neighbors say that they have never seen her with a knife, and they are wondering how she got the knife. They say that she is a very nice girl, and they are surprised that she would be involved in such a violent incident. They are calling for more supervision of children, and for better education on knife safety.

Republicans offer alternative VA health care bill

By Robert Noyce
 A group of Republicans has introduced an alternative bill for VA health care. The bill is designed to provide more funding for VA health care, and to improve the quality of care. The bill also includes provisions to reduce the wait times for VA health care, and to provide more services to veterans. The bill is a response to the concerns of veterans and their families, and it is hoped that it will be passed by Congress.