

GRAND BUFFET (760) 865-8888
Wendy's (760) 865-8888
McDonald's (760) 865-8888

Food safety aim of ServSafe program

By Robert Noyce
 Food safety is a top concern among consumers, and the ServSafe program is designed to help food service workers understand and follow best practices to keep their customers safe. The program, which is a requirement for all food service workers in California, is designed to help workers understand and follow best practices to keep their customers safe. The program, which is a requirement for all food service workers in California, is designed to help workers understand and follow best practices to keep their customers safe.

County is well prepared if E. coli breaks out

By Robert Noyce
 The San Diego County Health Department is well prepared to handle a potential outbreak of E. coli, according to a report from the county's health officer. The health officer, Dr. Robert Noyce, said that the county has a strong public health infrastructure and is well prepared to handle a potential outbreak of E. coli.

Double drowning in Beaver County lake

By Robert Noyce
 Two young boys drowned in a lake in Beaver County, according to a report from the county's health officer. The health officer, Dr. Robert Noyce, said that the boys were playing in the lake and that the drowning was preventable.

RoboCop throws out 1st pitch

By Robert Noyce
 A RoboCop mascot threw out the first pitch at a baseball game in San Diego, according to a report from the county's health officer. The mascot, which is a police officer in a RoboCop costume, threw the pitch to the home plate umpire.

Win $1,000 in the Ozsome Race

By Robert Noyce
 A woman won $1,000 in the Ozsome Race, a triathlon competition in San Diego. The winner, who is a local resident, completed the race in a record time and was awarded the prize money.

LEADER & TIMES

WEDNESDAY JUNE 4, 2014
 Your daily news & news for 125 years

Portland teachers miss class 14 days a year

By Robert Noyce
 Portland teachers miss class for an average of 14 days a year, according to a report from the county's health officer. The report, which is based on data from the county's health department, shows that teachers miss class for a variety of reasons, including illness and family issues.

Top military officer: Bergdahl case not closed

By Robert Noyce
 The case of Sgt. Bowe Bergdahl is not closed, according to a report from the county's health officer. The report, which is based on information from the military, says that the case is still being investigated and that there are still many questions that need to be answered.

Neighbors: Stabbing at odds with girls' upbringing

By Robert Noyce
 Neighbors of a family in San Diego are questioning the upbringing of their daughter, who was stabbed in a public place. The neighbors, who are concerned about the safety of their community, say that the girl's behavior is inconsistent with the values that she was raised with.

Republicans offer alternative VA health care bill

By Robert Noyce
 Republicans in Congress have introduced an alternative bill for VA health care, according to a report from the county's health officer. The bill, which is designed to improve the VA health care system, includes provisions for increasing funding and improving the quality of care.

Neighbors: Stabbing at odds with girls' upbringing

By Robert Noyce
 Neighbors of a family in San Diego are questioning the upbringing of their daughter, who was stabbed in a public place. The neighbors, who are concerned about the safety of their community, say that the girl's behavior is inconsistent with the values that she was raised with.

Republicans offer alternative VA health care bill

By Robert Noyce
 Republicans in Congress have introduced an alternative bill for VA health care, according to a report from the county's health officer. The bill, which is designed to improve the VA health care system, includes provisions for increasing funding and improving the quality of care.