Wildfire sparks amazing wedding photo in Oregon
 By Matt Green
 A bride and groom in Oregon captured a unique moment during their wedding ceremony as a wildfire raged in the background. The couple, who were married in a small chapel, decided to have their wedding in a field with a view of the mountains. The wildfire, which started on June 8, 2014, has since spread to the area where the wedding took place. The couple's wedding photo, which shows the bride and groom standing in front of the burning forest, has since gone viral on social media. For more information, contact Matt Green at 672-626-6000.
