City to discuss development financing plan
By Matt Green
The City of Liberal is considering a plan to raise money for the city's infrastructure needs, including water, sewer, and street lighting. The plan would allow the city to issue bonds to raise the money, which would be repaid over time through a surcharge on property taxes. The city council will discuss the plan at its next meeting on June 16.

School board supports college's concerns over merger
By Matt Green
The Liberal School Board has supported the concerns of the Liberal College of Business regarding a proposed merger with the University of Kansas. The board voted to support the college's position that the merger would result in the loss of Liberal's independence and its ability to provide a unique educational experience for its students.

Hitting the trail
By Matt Green
A group of riders from the Liberal Equestrian Club are enjoying a ride on the trails at the new Liberal Equestrian Center. The center, which is located on the grounds of the former Liberal High School, is a beautiful facility that provides a great place for riders of all ages to enjoy the sport of equestrianism.

Kansas Avenue closed until 5 p.m. Wednesday
Due to a major water main break on Kansas Avenue, the road will be closed from 5 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Wednesday, June 11. The closure is necessary to allow workers to repair the broken pipe and to ensure the safety of the public. We apologize for the inconvenience and thank you for your patience.

Wildfire sparks amazing wedding photo in Oregon
A bride and groom in Oregon captured a unique moment during their wedding ceremony as a wildfire raged in the background. The couple, who were married in a small, intimate ceremony, were surrounded by family and friends as they exchanged vows. The wildfire, which was caused by lightning strikes, was a major concern for the community, but the couple's wedding provided a beautiful backdrop for their special day.

Buffalo Bill's necklace, Colt up for auction
A rare necklace once owned by Buffalo Bill and a Colt revolver are up for auction. The necklace, which was made of silver and diamonds, was a gift from Buffalo Bill to his wife. The Colt revolver, which was made in 1873, is a rare and valuable piece of American history. The auction will take place on June 15 at the Liberal Public Library.
