Miss Kansas working hard to achieve goals
By COLLEEN
By the time she's 16, Miss Kansas will have a long list of accomplishments. She'll have been crowned the most beautiful young woman in the state, and she'll have a job, a car, and a wardrobe that's worth thousands of dollars. But she'll also have a lot of responsibilities. She'll be expected to represent her state at national and international pageant competitions. She'll be expected to be a role model for young women. She'll be expected to raise money for charity. And she'll be expected to be a good person. It's a lot of pressure for a 16-year-old girl. But for Miss Kansas, it's just another day. She's working hard to achieve her goals.

If you have a child who is interested in the Ozarks, this is the time to sign up for the Ozark Race High Plains Adventures. The race is a 50-mile journey through the heart of the Ozarks. It's a challenge, but it's also a reward. Sign up now, don't wait.

Cantor's defeat shakes up GOP
It was unclear if Cantor intended to remain in his leadership post for the duration of the year or who might replace him in the new Congress if Republicans lost their majority.
