

ENJOY BILLY'S PRAMOUS CURSINE AT HOME ON A SUNDAY WITH OUR CATERING SERVICE. Click here for details.

ENJOY BILLY'S PRAMOUS CURSINE AT HOME ON A SUNDAY WITH OUR CATERING SERVICE. Click here for details.

ENJOY BILLY'S PRAMOUS CURSINE AT HOME ON A SUNDAY WITH OUR CATERING SERVICE. Click here for details.

College offers CNG tech classes

Students can learn about the latest technology in the field of compressed natural gas (CNG) through a new program at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. The program, which is the first of its kind in the state, will offer students the opportunity to learn about the benefits of CNG as a clean and cost-effective alternative fuel source.

Spanish Peaks flooding forces evacuation of Scouts

Scouts at a summer camp in Colorado were evacuated from their tents as flooding threatened the site. The incident occurred on Saturday, July 19, when heavy rains caused the water level in the nearby reservoir to rise significantly. The campers were safely relocated to a higher ground area.

Get ready for Bazaar Days

The annual Bazaar Days event is set to begin on Sunday, July 20, at the downtown location. This year's theme is "Community and Commerce." The event will feature a variety of activities, including live music, art displays, and a parade. The organizers expect a large turnout of residents and visitors.

Veterans Appreciation Show set for July 31

A Veterans Appreciation Show is scheduled for Sunday, July 31, at the local community center. The event is a free, all-day celebration designed to honor and thank the military veterans who have served their country. Activities include a parade, a raffle, and a luncheon.

Relay committee reports on success of event

The relay committee has submitted its final report on the recent charity event, highlighting the success of the fundraising efforts and the participation of the community. The report notes that the event exceeded expectations and raised a significant amount of money for the cause.

Hundreds of protests planned this weekend across U.S. over border crisis

Protesters are planning demonstrations across the United States to express their concerns over the border crisis. The protests are being organized by various groups and are expected to draw hundreds of participants. The demonstrators will be calling for a more humane and secure border policy.

For Obama, foreign crises grow more challenging

President Obama faces increasing challenges in managing international crises as the global situation continues to evolve. Analysts note that the President's leadership will be tested as he navigates complex geopolitical issues. The challenges include managing relations with major powers and addressing global security concerns.

