

Life is beautiful... from Friday to Monday.
Friday Night Carlin's & Seafood Night, Food & Eat Shrimp & Oysters on the Half Shell, Art House, Pizza & Sandwich, etc. 400-666-6666. View more photos.

Cause of fire under investigation
Page 24

Bazaar Days are here
Page 6A

Turpin Schools back to the drawing board
Page 2A

Semi collides with Mustang
Page 5A

Changes made to neighborhood revitalization tax rebate plan
Page 1A

FRIDAY JULY 25, 2014
LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news & views for 128 years

LOCAL BARGAINS
10 GARAGE SALES LISTED INSIDE TODAY

The Seward County Republican Party
convenes its 2014 convention on Friday, July 25, at 2:30 p.m. in the Seward County Courthouse in Seward, Mo. for a three-day meeting.

Kids' College open house
Seward County Public Schools is hosting an open house for the new Seward County Community College campus in Seward, Mo. on Friday, July 25, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the new Seward County Community College campus in Seward, Mo.

Pot may be legal, but homeowner agreements can ban
A new law in Colorado allows for the legal use of marijuana, but it doesn't mean that everyone can grow their own. Homeowner associations can still ban it.

Surgeons in India remove 232 teeth from teen
A 17-year-old boy from India has had 232 teeth removed from his mouth. The boy had a condition called hyperdontia, which causes extra teeth to grow.