The Seward County Republican Party announced today that it will hold its annual convention on Friday, July 25, 2014, at 2:30 p.m. in the Seward County Courthouse in Seward, Mo. The convention will be held from 2:30 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. and will feature a luncheon, a keynote address by the county Republican Party chair, and a vote on the party platform for the upcoming general election.

Kids' College open house
Seward County Community College is hosting an open house for its new Kids' College program on Friday, July 25, 2014, from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. in the college's new building. The program is designed to help young children learn about college and career options. Activities include a tour of the building, a presentation by the college president, and a Q&A session with college staff.

Pot may be legal, but homeowner agreements can ban
A new bill in the Missouri legislature would allow for the legal cultivation and use of marijuana for medical purposes. However, the bill also includes provisions that would allow homeowners to ban marijuana use on their property. The bill is currently in committee and is expected to be heard in the coming weeks.

Surgeons in India remove 232 teeth from teen
A 17-year-old boy from India has undergone a major dental procedure in which 232 teeth were removed from his mouth. The boy had a condition called hyperdontia, which causes the growth of extra teeth. The procedure was performed by a team of surgeons at a hospital in India. The boy is now recovering and is expected to be discharged in a few days.
