Forgan senior Jake Regier signed his letter of intent to play basketball at Oklahoma Panhandle State University next fall.

Regier was a 2013 All-State selection by the Oklahoma Coaches Association, and The Daily Oklahoman. Regier was a key member of Forgan's back-to-back state titles in 2011 and 2012.

"He's been a mainstay in all the successes we've have over the last several years; a big part of two state championships and an all-stater, and not just a Coaches Association all-stater but also an Academic all-stater," Forgan boys coach Todd Kerr said. "He excelled in every aspect of what it means to be a student athlete. He's the kind of guy you build a winning program around."

Regier decided on OPSU because it is close to home, and his family would be able to come and watch him play.

"I just love this area and this community," Regier said. "Grandma was really happy with my choice.”
