The Rockies continued their winning ways with an 11-7 win over the A's at Rosel Field, Friday. After each team scored three runs a piece in the first inning and one a piece in the second, the A's gained an advantage with one in the third to go up 5-4.

But the Rockies rallied in the fourth with six runs.

The A's scored one in the fourth, and another in the fifth, but could not cut any further into the Rockies lead.

Cal Ripken games will be played Sunday to make up for games cancelled earlier because of weather.
